RESOLING DEAUVILLE SANDALS

The introduction of the Deauville type of slipper into women's summer wear, brings the problem of the most satisfactory method of resoling this type of fashionable and comfortable footwear.

These smart, woven, Deauville sandals, which are unrepairable by the usual machine methods, can now be resoled to look like new by the PENN-STANDARD SOLE CEMENTING PROCESS.

We guarantee to replace, free of charge, any soles resoled by this process in this shop if the soles work loose before wearing through.

SENIORS

Naturally your thoughts at this time are directed to Commencement, but we are wondering what you will have in mind after your college days are over. Your presence in our midst for four years. Your presence in Rock Hill has been an inspiration to the citizens of this community.

We extend to you our sincerest good wishes for the future. If at any time you feel that this bank and those connected with it may be of business service to you, your relatives and friends, we shall be pleased to have you call upon us.

If there are any among your acquaintance who contemplate moving to Rock Hill for the purpose of educating their daughters at Winthrop, we will be pleased to furnish information as to desirable homes and business opportunities.

Reports of Y. W. C. A. Officers to Be Given Wednesday

On Wednesday evening, May 22, at 6:30, the Y. W. C. A. will hold its annual meeting. At that time the officers of the association will give a report of their activities during the past year. This meeting should be of interest to all. It is hoped that every member will be present.

You will be interested in the present condition of the Y. W. C. A. finances. A recent report shows that 865 students have paid all of their pledges, 122 have paid part, and 288 have paid none.

This year the budget has been considerably reduced. Under such circumstances it is all the more important that we raise the amount pledged.

The following report gives the present status of the budget:

1. Toward support of Elsie McIntosh: Amount pledged, $850; amount paid, $425; amount due, $425.

2. National Student Council: Amount pledged, $250; amount paid, $125; amount due, $125.

3. International Student Service: Amount pledged, $50; amount paid, $25; amount due, $25.

4. Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions: Amount pledged, $10; amount paid, nothing; amount due, $10.

5. Virginia Ball, orphan: Amount pledged, $75; amount paid, $25; amount due, $50.

6. Winthrop Scholarship Student in Y. W. C. A. Office: Amount pledged, $195; amount paid, nothing; amount due, $195.

7. Speakers and Traveling Secretaries on Campus: Amount pledged, $200; amount paid, $100; amount due, $200.

8. Printing, Committee, Office Expenses: Amount pledged, $300; amount paid, nothing; amount due, $300.

9. Social Activities: Amount pledged, $150; amount paid, $75; amount due, $75.

10. Books and Magazines for Resource Material: Amount pledged, $75; amount paid, nothing; amount due, $75.

11. Toward Salary of General Secretary: Amount pledged, $500; amount paid, $100; amount due, $400.

12. Emergency Fund: Amount pledged, $50; amount paid, $25; amount due, $25.

13. Toward Supporting Foreign Student on Our Campus: Amount pledged, $700; amount paid, nothing; amount due, $700.

With these facts before us, we realize that unless each student considers the budget a personal responsibility, we shall never raise the amount pledged.

Blue Ridge Program Given At Prayer Meeting

A group of girls who were delegates to Blue Ridge last year conducted the weekly prayer service Wednesday evening. In an informal manner they gave us the atmosphere of Blue Ridge, its aims, its meaning.

The playlet which they presented was very effective. The scene was in the Winthrop cottage at Blue Ridge; the time the last night they were there. Coming in from a hill they gathered in a circle around the large open fireplace. From their conversation we glimpsed the beauty of Blue Ridge and the many benefits derived from attending the conference.

We learned that Dr. Chamberlain, dean of religious education at Dartmouth, was the main speaker. He made a series of addresses on the subject, "Religion as an Integrating Factor in Life."

Dr. Jackson, Dr. Potat and Dr. Elliott led discussion groups every morning. Dr. Jackson, who is vice president of the North Carolina College for Women, spoke on "The Changing South." He dealt particularly with the industrial and racial problems of the South.

Dr. Potat is a returned missionary from China. His topic, "Religious Education," was most interesting.

Dr. and Mrs. Elliott made joint talks. Dr. Elliott is professor of psychology at Columbia University. His subject on "Understanding Yourself" was very helpful. Mrs. Elliott gave an inspirational lesson on the subject, "Our Place as Women." Mrs. Elliott is well known as the author of the book, "Sex Life of the Youth of Today."

In this manner our girls brought the messages from Blue Ridge home to us. After singing several Blue Ridge songs, they closed the program with "Taps."

Collegiate Exchange

May Day in South Carolina Colleges May Day celebrations have been sponsored by many colleges of the South. Among the queens in South Carolina we find, Miss Juliet Buchalew, Converse; Miss Margaret McCutchen, Columbia College; Miss Tolly Whitaker, University of South Carolina. Beautiful pageants were presented by each college.

Found—A Co-Ed; Lost—One Man. Almost-miraculously has got more than one person into difficulty. Beginning is far different from ending, as one young man at Boston University learned to his surprise. A blue and sophisticated Junior, he accompanied a co-ed to lunch. No matter how or why, since she came, he saw, she conquered.

They ambulated into the restaurant which she had chosen, and seated themselves at a table. They ate, as they had intended. They went through all the stages from soup to cigarettes, and they ambled towards the door.

Then the young man lost his sang froid. The co-ed had reached into her pocket and played a hand in his hand.

"Oh, but I'll pay," he stammered. "Not at all," she replied coldly. "I came to a co-ed college and I have equal rights with men." Popularity is deserved, but the sudden jump in co-ed's stock brought many invitations. Would that there were more co-eds like her!—Boston University News.

Radio is Becoming Part of College Work

Radio is rapidly gaining recognition in the colleges, both as a medium for broadcasting college activities and as a course of study for those who wish to make it their life work. Many of the larger stations are employing only college men in the capacity of announcer or director—men who have had microphone experience.

There are now sixty-three college radio stations in the United States. This is particularly remarkable, since it must be remembered that radio as a college institution is comparatively new. The colleges broadcast lectures, educational talks and talent recruited from the student body. Some of the schools have large and beautiful studios, with a staff of artists equal to any commercial station—Butler College.

The Wanderer

(Pearl E. Nancewan, P. A. L.)
He came my way
Gray with the years,
He had held high; I saw his eyes.
They made me think
Of wind-blown spray,
And bits of stars flung in the skies.
Yet, when he passed
The spell of smoke
From mountain campfires haunted me—
The fragrant breath
Of burning pine
Mixed with sea-salt of the sea.
His eager step
Turned to the west,
I wondered if he really knew
Just what it meant to stop and rest
The shadows fell.
The wanderer went
Eyes of the sea and smell of smoke.
Into the night
Where mountains woke
The droozy sky.
—Boston University News.

A fretful baby is like a choice bit of scandal: no matter how hard you try, you can't hush it up.

They laughed at me when I sat down at the piano—some idiot had moved the stool.

were: Ruth Hare, Martha McInnes, Sarah Ellorbe, Elizabeth Hopke, Martha Thurnmond, Elizabeth Rose, Willie Kate Baldwin, Frances McLaurin, Irene Yates, Cooper Davis and Lois Deane McLaughlin.
This year the conference will be held June 4-13. Winthrop hopes to have a large delegation. Those interested in going should see Mrs. Grauel.

Club Parties

Pi Gamma Phi

The new members of the Pi Gamma Phi Club (formerly Tri Beta) entertained the old members with a delightful banquet Tuesday evening at the attractive home of Miss Erma Stewart on Charlotte Avenue. The dainty hand-painted place cards, menus and luncheon baskets were in the club colors, green and white; the club flower, rose, was used in detail in the decorations and courses. The old members received as favors attractive club pennants. A delicious five-course dinner was served. The following were present: Old members—Evelyn White, Elizabeth Pollard, Florida Pollard, Thelma Cook, Margaret Mayfield. New members—Joyce Kelleff, Margaret Lindler, Rachael Bruner, Florida Roof, Elizabeth Mayfield, Erma Stewart.

Pi Sigma Phi

The new members of Pi Sigma Phi entertained the old with a delightful party last week. The table was decorated with a miniature Maypole and the club colors. A delicious salad course was served, followed by strawberry shortcake. Attractive favors were presented.

D. K. Z. Club

The new members of the D. K. Z. Club entertained the old members at tea Thursday afternoon. At six o'clock the guests assembled at Johnson Hall, where they were served with a salad course, tea, and sandwiches. The hostesses were: Janet Leake, Irene Broughton, Hilda Bingham and Jacqueline Stoddemaire. Those enjoying their hospitality were: Dr. Dunning, Martha Davenport, Helen Reish, Legare Blackwell, Peggy Freeman, Rebecca Youngblood, Virginia Bard, Elizabeth Boyd, Cecile Chapman, Florence Markert, Mary Hammond and Lillie Davis.

Miss Hallie Carson, from Hartsville, S. C., a Winthrop graduate, visited friends on the campus last week.

Lavine Dulin, a former student at Winthrop, spent the week-end on the campus.

"Your eyes are as bright as the stars," she sighed.
"And just as far out of your reach," she replied.
